Annex 1: Food Industry and Agrochemical Industry Trade Associations and Front Groups

Note: The information presented below comes exclusively from the organizations' websites and their Form 990s.

Trade Associations

Biotechnology Industry Organization
www.bio.org
Founded: 1993
Annual Expenses: $65 million (2012)

Mission: “BIO is the world’s largest trade association representing biotechnology companies, academic institutions, state biotechnology centers and related organizations across the United States and in more than 30 other nations. BIO members are involved in the research and development of innovative health-care, agricultural, industrial and environmental biotechnology products.”

Activity highlights: BIO produces the BIO International Convention, the world’s largest gathering of the biotechnology industry, along with industry-leading investor and partnering meetings held around the world. It also runs the blog www.biotech-now.org chronicling “innovations transforming our world.”

Key staff and board members:
President/CEO: James C. Greenwood
Board Chairwoman: Rachel King, GlycoMimetics

Board members include:
• Jill Zullo, Cargill
• Philip W. Miller, Monsanto
• Robin Readnour, Elanco
• Bradley Shurdut, Dow AgroSciences
• Frank Terhorst, Bayer CropScience
• Mark Wong, Agrivida
• Matthias Meder, BASF Plant Science
• Eddie Sullivan, SAB Biotherapeutics
• Jay Siegel, Janssen Pharmaceutical Companies of Johnson & Johnson

CropLife America
www.croplifeamerica.org

Founded: 1933
Annual Expenses: $15 million (2013)

Mission: “To foster the interests of the general public and the association’s member companies by promoting innovation and the environmentally sound use of crop protection products for the economical production of safe, high quality, abundant food, fiber, and other crops.”

Activity highlights: CropLife America lobbies for crop protection programs and industrial agriculture. It runs the CropLife Foundation “to promote and advance sustainable agriculture, and the environmental-safe use of crop protection products and bio engineered agriculture.” CropLife America’s member companies produce, sell and distribute virtually all of the crop protection and biotechnology products used by American farmers. These members represent the developers, manufacturers, formulators and distributors of genetic engineering for agriculture and pest management in the United States.

Key staff and board members:
President /CEO: Jay Vroom (previously with the National Fertilizer Solutions Association)
Senior Vice President of Science and Regulatory Affairs: Dr. Janet Collins (previously worked at DuPont)
Executive Vice President/COO: William F. Kuckuck (previous president of Tyson Foods International)

North American Meat Institute

www.meatinstitute.org

Founded: 2015 (Started in 1906 as the American Meatpackers Association; formed in 2015 with the American Meat Institute/North American Meat Association merger)

Annual Expenses: $7.8 million (2013 - American Meat Institute); $3 million (2014 - North American Meat Association)

Mission: “The North American Meat Institute (NAMI) is the leading voice for the meat and poultry industry. Formed from the 2015 merger of the American Meat Institute (AMI) and North American Meat Association (NAMA), the Institute has a rich, century-long history and provides essential member services including legislative, regulatory, scientific, international and public affairs representation. NAMI’s mission is to shape a public policy environment in which the meat and poultry industry can produce wholesome products safely, efficiently and profitably. Together, the Institute’s members produce the vast majority of U.S. beef, pork, lamb and poultry and the equipment, ingredients and services needed for the highest quality products.”

Activity highlights: “NAMI is a national trade association that represents companies that process 95 percent of red meat and 70 percent of turkey products in the US and their suppliers throughout America.” It lobbies and hosts conferences and events on behalf of the meat and poultry industry. Through the North American Meat Institute Foundation, NAMI has awarded over $8 million (since 1999) in research funding for universities and other institutions towards research relating to industrial meat production practices.

Key staff and board members:

President/CEO: Patrick Boyle

Front Groups

Alliance For Food And Farming
www.foodandfarming.info

Founded: 1989
Annual Expenses: $243,782 (2013)

Mission: “The mission of the Alliance for Food and Farming is to deliver credible information to consumers about the safety of fruits and vegetables.”

Activity highlights: According to their website, “The primary focus of the Alliance for Food and Farming is on key issue areas involving pesticide residues, microbial foodborne illness and other questions which may impact consumer confidence in the health and safety of fruits and vegetables.” In 2010, AFF received a $180,000 grant from the CA Dept. of Food and Agriculture for a project entitled “Correcting Misconceptions about Pesticide Residues.” With some help from this grant, the AFF holds webinars and publishes papers arguing that non-organic produce is safe to eat, “debunking” the Environmental Working Group’s Dirty Dozen report. It runs the website www.SafeFruitsandVeggies.com.

Key staff and board members:

Executive director: Marilyn Dolan (previously with the California Tree Fruit Agreement)

Board members include:

• Matt McInerney, (Chairman), Western Growers

Alliance To Feed The Future
www.alliancetofeedthefuture.org

Founded: 2011

Annual Expenses: $521,095 (2013) (Primarily funded by the International Food Information Council Foundation.)

Mission: “Raise awareness and improve understanding of the benefits & necessity of modern food production and technology in order to meet global demand.”

Activity highlights: The Alliance to Feed the Future has an annual “Communicator of the Year Award,” given in past years in collaboration with the American Meat Institute and CropLife America. Additionally, it provides educational resources on conventional agriculture to elementary and middle schools.

Key staff and board members:

President/CEO: Dave Schmidt, International Food Information Council

Giant list of agribusiness members include: American Meat Institute, American Soybean Association, Animal Agriculture Alliance, Biotechnology Industry Organization, Center for Food Integrity, International Food Information Council, National Confectioners Association, Snack Food Association, National Frozen Pizza Institute, CropLife America, Grocery Manufacturers Association, National Chicken Council

Board members: Same as the International Food Information Council (see below).
Mission: “ACSH’s mission is to ensure that peer-reviewed mainstream science reaches the public, the media, and the decision-makers who determine public policy. Our objective is to restore science and common sense to personal and public health decisions in order to foster a scientifically sound and sensible public health policy for the American people. ACSH is committed to improving communication and dialogue between the scientific/medical community and the public and the media, in an effort to ensure that the coverage of health issues is based on scientific facts – not hyperbole, emotion or ideology.”

Activity highlights: ACSH has published papers arguing that cutting greenhouse gases would have a worse effect on public health than global warming, defends fracking, dismisses concerns with BPA and atrazine, and fights local soda bans. In the fiscal year 2013, ACSH received almost $400,000 from industry groups, including Chevron, Coca-Cola and McDonald’s.

Key staff and board members:
Founders: Dr. Elizabeth Whelan (current), Dr. Fredrick J. Stare, Norman E. Borlaug
Partners: Alliance to Feed the Future, Culture of Alarmism, Golden Rice Petition, SafeChemicalPolicy.org, Competitive Enterprise Institute, No on I-522, No on Prop-37
Past collaborators: Washington Legal Foundation, Cato Institute, Manhattan Institute, Pacific Research Institute, and Heartland Institute

Board members include:
• Gilbert Ross, ACSH
• Thom Golab, Media Research Center (a conservative media watchdog group)
• Herbert I. London, London Center for Policy Research (a conservative think tank)
• Fred L. Smith Jr., Competitive Enterprise Institute

Mission: “To communicate the important role of modern animal agriculture to our nation’s economy, productivity, vitality, security and that animal well-being is central to producing safe, high-quality, affordable

Animal Agriculture Alliance
www.animalagalliance.org
Formerly known as the Animal Industry Foundation
Founded: 1987

Annual Expenses: $548,131 (2013)

Mission: “To communicate the important role of modern animal agriculture to our nation’s economy, productivity, vitality, security and that animal well-being is central to producing safe, high-quality, affordable and other products essential to our daily lives.”18

Activity highlights: The Animal Agriculture Alliance defends factory farming practices and antibiotic use. In addition to lobbying, the Alliance presents at conventions and hosts an annual Stakeholders Summit for industry groups to discuss industrial animal agriculture.

Back To Balance Coalition

www.bk2balance.org

Founded: 2014

Annual Expenses: N/A

Mission: “The Back to Balance Coalition brings together food and beverage organizations, health advocacy groups, and nutrition professionals who are supporters of balance, variety and moderation in dietary guidance. The group aims to bring forward common sense, practicality, economic, and cultural relevance into federal Dietary Guidelines.” 19

Activity highlights: The Back to Balance Coalition provides “fact sheets” on the health benefits of canned vegetables, candy consumption, meat, grains and sweeteners, promoting the consumption of processed foods.

Key staff and board members:

Supporters include: American Association of Meat Processors, American Frozen Foods Institute, Corn Refiners Association, Grocery Manufacturers Association, National Chicken Council, National Pork Producers Council, National Restaurant Association, National Turkey Federation, North American Meat Institute

Center For Consumer Freedom
www.consumerfreedom.com
Founded: 1996
Annual Expenses: $1 million (2012)

Mission: “Research and education on issues related to consumer choices and the activist community to educate the public on consumer issues, including those related to government regulations, especially those related to product choices; educate the public about the organizations that work on issues related to public policies, especially those working to increase attacking those choices; providing educational information to policymakers, the media and the general public.”

Activity highlights: The Center for Consumer Freedom runs the websites ActivistFacts.com, Humane-Watch.org, PetaKillsAnimals.com, ActivistCash.com, PhysicianScam.com, SweetScam.com, Trans-Fat-Facts.com, AnimalScam.com, ObesityMyths.com, CSPIScam.com, and MercuryFacts.com. Its purpose is to advocate on behalf of the restaurant, beverage and food industries using the rhetoric of “promoting personal responsibility and protecting consumer choices.” Its executive director, Richard Berman, has been described by 60 Minutes as “the booze and food industries’ weapon of mass destruction.”

Key staff and board members:

Executive director: Richard Berman, founder of the American Beverage Institute
Senior Research Analyst: Will Coggin
Directors: James Blackstock, David Browne, D. Lane Cardwell, Daniel Mindus, Richard Verrecchia

Coalition For Safe And Affordable Food
www.coalitionforsafeaffordablefood.org
Founded: 2014
Annual Expenses: N/A

Mission: “We are a broad-based coalition representing the entire American agriculture food chain - from farm to fork. We are committed to increasing the public’s understanding about the science and safety of GMOs and advocating for a uniform labeling solution.”

Activity highlights: The Coalition for Safe and Affordable Food provides information on the cost, environmental, health and hunger “benefits” of GMOs. It lobbies against GMO labeling initiatives at the state and federal level and has been advocating in support of the federal Safe and Accurate Food Labeling Act, a bill that would nullify state GMO labeling bills and codify voluntary GMO labeling.

Key staff and board members:

Founded by GMA.

40 Food industry members include: American Bakers Association, American Beverage Association, American Frozen Food Institute, American Soybean Association, Corn Refiners Association, Council for Responsible Nutrition, Flavor & Extract Manufacturers Association, Global Cold Chain Alliance, International Dairy Foods Association, National Association of Manufacturers, National Confectioners Association, National Fisheries Institute, National Restaurant Association, National Turkey Federation and Snack Food Association

Council For Biotechnology Information

www.whybiotech.com

Founded: 2000

Annual Expenses: $3 million (2012)

Mission: “To promote agricultural plant biotechnology through the exchange of information about its benefits and safety through research, education, advocacy and other means in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.”

Activity highlights: The Council for Biotechnology Information works to promote the acceptance of biotechnology through trainings, conferences and writing policy briefs. It runs the website www.GMOAnswers.com. In the 2012-13 fiscal year, CBI spent $1.25 million “training third party spokespeople (farmers, academics, dieticians) to educate media and public about risk and about the benefits of ag biotech,” as well as “partner[ing] with grower groups, academia, and food chain to enhance acceptance of ag biotech.” CBI also donated money to groups such as the Hawaii Crop Improvement Association for “outreach, education, lobbying, and communication activities” on biotechnology.

Key staff and board members:

Executive director: Cathleen Enright, Executive Director and formerly of the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative

Board members

Consultative partners include: Congressional Hunger Center, Conservation International, WWF, The Nature Conservancy

International Food Information Council
www.foodinsight.com

Founded: 1985
Annual Expenses: $5 million (2013)

Mission: “The International Food Information Council (IFIC) Foundation is dedicated to the mission of effectively communicating science-based information on health, nutrition and food safety for the public good.”

Activity highlights: In 1991, IFIC created their “educational arm,” the International Food Information Council Foundation. IFIC Foundation projects have included research on media coverage of diet, health, and food safety issues. One of their campaigns, FACTS (Food Advocates Communicating Through Science), was created to “combat deceptive advice, misleading statistics and alarmist tactics in food and nutrition dialogues.” As an example, one FACTS blog post on the website www.foodinsight.org provides information on the “benefits of processed foods.”

Key staff and board members:

President/CEO: David B. Schmidt. Previously served in the first Bush Administration’s director of external affairs at the USDA’s Food Safety and Inspection Service.

Keep Food Affordable
www.keepfoodaffordable.com

Founded: 2012

Annual Expenses: N/A

Mission: “Keep Food Affordable is a coalition that brings together consumers, farmers, and food security organizations to keep food safe, affordable, and available for all Americans.”

Activity highlights: Keep Food Affordable provides information on food policies and initiatives while lobbying for factory farm antibiotic use, pink slime, and fighting back against The Egg Bill.

Key staff and board members:
Founded by the National Pork Producers Council.

Members include: Egg Farmers of America, National Poultry Producers Council

---

Protect The Harvest
www.protecttheharvest.com

Founded: 2011

Annual Expenses: $870, 811 (2012)

Mission: “Protect The Harvest was created to fight back and defend American families, farmers, sportsmen and animal owners from the growing threat posed by the radical animal rights movement. The organization has three objectives: 1) Inform America’s consumers, businesses and decision-makers about the true nature and reach of animal rights groups like the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) and the potential consequences of their agenda, 2) Protect our freedoms and way of life by creating lasting legal safeguards for farmers, sportsmen and animal owners, 3) Respond to the activities of radical groups like the Humane Society of the United States (HSUS) by opposing their efforts to pass laws or enact regulations that would restrict the rights and freedoms of farmers, sportsmen and animal owners.”

Activity highlights: Protect the Harvest campaigns against any initiatives or organizations focusing on reducing meat consumption or restricting hunting. The organization focuses on campaigning against the Humane Society of the United States and defending factory farming practices.

Key staff and board members:

Founder/Chair: Forrest Lucas, multimillionaire founder of Lucas Oil Products (which annually brings in $150 million in revenue)

Executive director: Brian Kippenstein, beef cattle farmer, former Chief of Staff to Senator Kit Bond
